

January 30, 2018

Dear Families of our Confirmation Youth,

Time certainly has a way of slipping by too fast. As we are approaching the end of the long, holiday break this is a reminder that confirmation will be starting back up again.

On Sunday, February 4, 2018 confirmation resumes at 9:15 A.M. in the conference room (same location as the fall sessions.) Please bring your confirmation book, your Bible and the Small Catechism book. We will be starting with the Ten Commandments and possibly a little review of last fall's material. David Ingraham will be joining the class to continue the faith formation series on miracles of the Bible.

Also, please remember to bring your sermon notes, if they have not already been turned into Pastor.

It would also be a good idea to bring a list of service projects completed so far.

If any makeup is needed please contact Carol Jones, 804-837-0675, to arrange a time to go over items that are incomplete or missing.

Sincerely,

Pastor Jim Kniseley

David Ingraham
